Locality

Situated in the heart of Wittersham, a popular village just north of the Kent / Sussex border, conveniently located between the ancient Cinque Ports town of Rye, with its famous cobbled citadel and Tenterden, with its pretty tree lined main street and established doctors surgery. Both offering a wide range of shopping, sporting and recreational amenities and both being easily accessible on the active bus services through the village.

The village is within the High Weald, an area of outstanding natural beauty and is surrounded by undulating countryside which contains many places of general and historic interest as well as numerous public footpaths. Local amenities include a general store, hairdressers, primary school, village hall and a recreational ground.

Ashford is home to the international rail terminal with regular services to London and continental Europe.
