£595,000

A rare opportunity to acquire this unique detached 1970s themed bungalow ideally tucked away in this private and secluded location of Cooden. Built as one of three individual bungalows in this private development in the 1960s, the property was then purchased by a London architect in the 1970s and was extensively re-designed to create a stunning family home (the original hand-drawn plans are still available to view). The current owners have sympathetically updated the property to an exceptionally high standard all while keeping so many of the distinctive 70s features that capture the heart of this property such as the parquet flooring, wooden ceiling, bathroom tiling, internal doors and fittings and more. Offering bright and spacious accommodation throughout, the property comprises a south-facing sunroom/porch, large triple aspect lounge/diner with inset wood-burner, modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room, three double bedrooms with the master further benefitting from en-suite shower room, utility room, bathroom and separate WC. Other internal benefits include gas central heating and double glazed windows throughout. Externally, the property boasts gardens to all four sides of the property, a shared drive providing space for visitor parking, an oversized garage and forecourt with space for multiple vehicles. Conveniently situated within walking distance of Cooden Beach, Cooden Golf Club, Little Common village and main line rail station with direct links to London, Brighton, Gatwick and Ashford International. Viewing comes highly recommended by Rush Witt & Wilson Bexhill, to appreciate this one of a kind property in this sought-after location.
