Holmsley is an impressive Victorian family residence which has been immaculately maintained and updated by the current owners. Offering spacious and versatile accommodation set across four floors all with a wealth of original character, period features, combined with contemporary style.

On the ground floor is the entrance hall with stained glass panelled door. From the entrance hall is the spacious drawing room, with central fireplace, bay window with stained glass and an attractive view of the church. There is a Shaker-style breakfast kitchen with central island, AGA and double French doors opening onto a raised deck leading to the garden. There is a second sitting room with bay window offering garden views, original fireplace and log burning stove.

The lower ground floor has been fully converted and offers a utility room, study area, shower room and snug with an independent garden entrance, which could be utilised as a self-contained bedroom.

To the first and second floor are five well-proportioned bedrooms and three bathrooms. The principal bedroom boasts a large bay window overlooking the church and a spacious en-suite bathroom with traditional fittings including a roll-top claw foot bathtub and separate shower.

Externally the property is approached by a secluded front courtyard garden. To the rear is arguably one of the best gardens in this proximity to the village centre. The total grounds extend to just under a quarter of an acre and are immaculately landscaped with sweeping block paved pathways, box hedging, seating areas and mature trees and borders

At the bottom of the garden is a large detached double garage and driveway which provides ample off-road parking for several vehicles which is accessed off Stevens Street.

A short walk from the village centre which offers everything for day-to-day needs, including the local train station with links to Manchester and London. To fully appreciate the appeal of this property a viewing is essential
