Asking Price £850,000

Video Tour available- This beautifully extended and immaculately presented four bedroom, three bathroom 1930s detached family home occupies a prominent corner plot in a highly convenient location, just a short stroll from the town centre and train station. The home exudes charm and character, blending classic period features with modern comforts, including UPVC double glazing, gas-fired central heating with underfloor heating to the ground floor, ample off-street parking, an integral garage, and mature, well-tended gardens.

A welcoming entrance porch opens into a spacious hallway, accessed through elegant double doors adorned with stained-glass leaded lights. The generously proportioned triple-aspect living room, complete with a characterful inglenook, connects seamlessly to a delightful garden room or children's lounge through oak bi-folding doors. This bright and versatile space features further bi-fold doors that open onto the rear garden, creating a harmonious indoor-outdoor living experience.

At the heart of the home lies a striking living kitchen, thoughtfully designed with sleek contemporary cabinetry, quartz work surfaces, a Quooker boiling water tap, integrated appliances, and a central peninsula island. The kitchen flows effortlessly into a cosy living/dining area via additional oak bi-fold doors. A spacious utility room and a stylish modern shower room complete the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the generous landing leads to a large principal bedroom featuring a private dressing area and an en-suite shower room. Three further well-proportioned bedrooms and a luxurious main bathroom provide comfortable accommodation for family and guests alike.
