The Property

Within the period conversion you are greeted by a well-maintained communal hallway detailed with Victorian tiling. The Flat which spans across the entire first floor has a separate living room and kitchen towards the front of the property.

The living room is spacious and bright with ample room for seating & dining, accustomed with a cast iron feature fireplace, desirable high ceilings with original covings / ceiling rose. The orientation is west facing ideal for evening sunsets that overlook the Green Downs afar.

The well-proportioned kitchen offers a variety of cupboards and worktop space including built in appliances, fridge / freezer, dishwasher, Gas oven and hob. Furthermore, you also have space for a small table to enjoy breakfast at whilst gazing the uninterrupted views presented.

Completing the accommodation is three generously proportioned double bedrooms all benefiting from large sash windows and ample storage space. There is also a family sized bathroom complete with tiled surround, shower over bath, W.C and wash basin.

Further benefits include gas central heating and the property is marketed with no onward chain.

Location

Redland is amongst the most sought after and coveted locations in the city and remains an incredibly popular suburb. There are excellent amenities on the nearby Whiteladies Road which provide a wide range of supermarkets, shops, restaurants and pubs. A choice of primary and secondary schools are nearby and, in addition, there is excellent access to the City, as well as to Cribbs Causeway and the motorway network. The property is ideally located for both Bristol University and the Bristol Royal Infirmary.
