The Property

This classic 1930's property presents an exciting opportunity to develop into an outstanding family home. Requiring updating throughout, you can tailor this property to your individual style and refine it into your perfect home.

Situated on a peaceful residential street in Fishponds, this end-of-terrace property welcomes you with a front garden that, subject to council approval, could serve as a driveway for off-street parking.

Upon entry, the ground floor features a spacious sitting room at the front, followed by a separate dining room and kitchen at the rear. Ascending upstairs, you'll find three bedrooms, two of which comfortably accommodate double beds, with the third bedroom ideal for a home office or single bedroom. Servicing the bedrooms is a bathroom with a separate WC adjacent.

Outside, the property boasts a remarkably long rear garden, with a single garage located at the end accessible via a lane or car if desired.

Location

The property is located in the ever-growing popular suburb of Fishponds, known for its quick links to the city centre via the M32, and its highly regarded and beautiful walks through Snuff Mills, Stoke Park & Oldbury Court Estate. Fishponds also benefits from excellent local schools, and an array of nearby shops, amenities, bars and restaurants just a short 5-minute walk away. Transport links also include a regular bus service commuting to the city centre.
