The Property

The property has been meticulously renovated by the current owners and the charming, welcoming apartment is immaculately presented throughout.

There is a sizeable open plan living space with feature angled ceilings and ample room for dining with a spacious kitchen. The kitchen consists of a range of gloss wall and base units beautifully finished with a solid Oak work surface. There is also a large island & breakfast bar providing further storage and workspace. In addition, there are a range of state of the art integrated appliances including induction hob, extractor hood, double ovens, wine cooler, fridge freezer and dishwasher. A separate utility room provides ample space for washing machine and tumble dryer, removing the need for these appliances in the open plan living space. Patio doors open up onto a private balcony which benefit from pleasant leafy views over the communal gardens.

The master bedroom is bright and airy with gently sloping ceilings, large built in wardrobes as well as a modern en-suite shower room with walk in mains fed shower cubicle, heated towel rail, bespoke freestanding stone sink and low level WC.

Both other bedrooms are good double rooms with built in storage whilst a stunning 4-piece family bathroom completes the internal accommodation which features free standing roll top bath, separate shower cubicle, bespoke stone basin and low level WC.

Externally the communal gardens are very well maintained and the property also benefits from a single garage with the residents also able to take advantage of a number of parking spaces available on a first come first serve basis.
