The Property

Once known as "La Retraite", a private school for girls, Cornwallis House was built circa 1794 and extended around 1820 to be finally transformed into luxury apartments about 40 years ago. Located in the sought after Cornwallis Grove, this exceptional apartment at Cornwallis House offers the perfect blend of historic charm and modern luxury, just moments from the heart of Clifton Village.

The communal hall features the apartment's front door, and upon opening it, an elegant wooden staircase invites you up to the property. Lying directly to the left of the large hallway is the grand reception room; it benefits from a southerly aspect, with floor-to-ceiling sash windows adorned with wooden shutters flooding the space with natural light and offering wonderful views over the beautifully landscaped communal gardens and Dundry hills beyond. The room is adorned with a charming cast iron fireplace flanked on either side with bespoke wooden cupboards. Adjacent to this room, on a mezzanine floor above the hallway, is a study area with delightful views over the hills through an attractive oval window.

The generously sized kitchen, fitted with wooden wall and base units, benefits from a double aspect with 2 large windows and offers plenty of space to accommodate a large dining table, perfect for entertaining.

The extensive master bedroom boasts beautiful period features such as dado rail, tall ceilings, sash windows with working wooden shutters and also benefits from a generous ensuite shower room.

The second bedroom also offers plenty of space for a double bed and additional wardrobe and chest of drawers.

The large family bathroom which serves the flat is fitted with a white 3-piece suite with main fed shower over the bath.

Finally, the property is flanked with a magnificent landscaped communal south facing garden with pristine lawns and mature trees for the enjoyment of the residents of Cornwallis House.
