The Property

A spacious and characterful two double bedroom located at the top of a former public house with pleasant, south facing Harbourside views.

The property is accessed via a private stairs at the top of a short communal stairway with plenty of light flooding the hallway thanks to a large window.

Occupying the roof and benefiting from characterful angled ceilings, the open plan living space is a lovely and bright space thanks to a number of skylights, windows and access to private roof terrace.

The good sized kitchen provides plenty of cupboard space and worksurfaces as well as a range of integrated appliances such as electric hob, oven and under counter fridge.

There is plenty of dining and living space further benefitting from pleasant southerly harbourside views.

The roof terrace is a peaceful and private sun trap which would make a superb entertaining space.

Both bedrooms are generous doubles and a part tiled shower room completes the accommodation and provides a walk in corner shower cubicle, tiled floor, basin, low level WC, heated towel rail and sky light.

Location

Hotwells with its charming mix of architecture from George Tully's Dowry Square dating from 1720 to the maritime influence of the nearby Harbourside district, Hotwells is amongst the most sought after locations in the City. Excellent amenities with independent shops, boutiques, cafes, bars and restaurants can be found in nearby Clifton Village, Whiteladies Road and the Triangle. Brunel's Clifton Suspension Bridge provides a gateway to the Ashton Court Estate with its woodlands, mountain bike trails and walks whilst there is excellent access to the exciting Harbourside district, The City Centre and Temple Meads.
