The Property

This charming end of terrace Victorian property set within an attractive cul-de-sac of similar period houses. On entering the property you are greeted by an traditional entrance vestibule, with tessellated tiled flooring and a partially glazed inner door to the hallway.

A bay fronted family room boasts a cast iron coal effect fireplace with attractive wooden surround and flows to an additional dining room with exposed wood flooring and french doors to the rear garden.

In addition there is a recently fitted modern kitchen with a range of wall and base units and integrated appliances including oven/grill with extractor, fridge/freezer and dishwasher.

On the first floor there are two spacious and bright bedrooms, both benefiting from exposed wood flooring with views over the front and rear aspects respectively. The master of which enjoys an original feature fireplace and large sash window. Completing this floor is a recently fitted contemporary four piece family bathroom, again with solid wood flooring.

Externally the property enjoys a low maintenance south west facing rear garden which enjoys the sun throughout much of the day whilst at the front, unusually for the street, there is an additional walled garden, with separate shed

Location

Clifton and the surrounding areas, with its Victorian and Georgian architecture, are amongst the most sought after locations in the City. The area offers charm alongside excellent amenities with independent shops, boutiques, cafes, bars and restaurants to be found on both Whiteladies Road and Clifton Village including Clifton Down shopping Centre. The Downs offers four hundred acres of green public space whilst Brunel's Clifton Suspension Bridge provides a gateway to the Ashton Court Estate with its woodlands, mountain bike trails and walks whilst there is excellent access to the exciting Harbourside district, the City Centre and Temple Meads.
