The Property

A Freehold 4 bedroom terraced period property with accommodation (1207 Sq Ft) over 3 floors including a large rear extension and attic conversion.

The property was subject to an extensive renovation in 2022 and is offered in excellent decorative order.

A traditional entrance provides access to a bright living room with bay window, the ground floor further offers a large open plan kitchen/dining room complemented by French doors that lead to the rear garden, creating a delightful space for entertaining guests. The kitchen features white gloss wall and base units and a range of integrated appliances, including extractor fan electric cooker and oven. Additionally, a convenient under stair storage completes this floor, providing practicality and convenience.

On the first floor, you will find two generously sized double bedrooms and a well appointed family bathroom with a white 3 piece suite. Ascending to the second floor, you'll discover the impressive master bedroom, offering a serene retreat. This luxurious space includes an ensuite shower room, providing privacy and convenience. Additionally, a fourth double bedroom awaits. Landscaped enclosed rear garden and courtyard to front.

This lovely home offers a wealth of desirable features, combined with a very popular location, make this an excellent choice for those seeking a period property in a thriving community.

Sold with vacant possession and no onward chain.

Location

The property is located in a quiet residential enclave a few minutes walk from both Stapleton Road, Lawrence Hill and Old Market in the cultural suburb of Easton and offers a wide variety of independent local traders and convenience stores. Bristol City Centre is approximately two miles away whilst the nearby M32 motorway network offers a fast route out of the City.
