The Property

The Old exchange has been sympathetically renovated into a modern and elegant development of just six individual apartments. Accessed via an impressive communal entrance/staircase the property is located on the first floor of this unique conversion, upon entry you're greeted by light filled accommodation with polished stone flooring throughout. The living/ kitchen area offers generous (23 x 19) proportions complete with a balcony (accessed via French doors) and is an ideal area to entertain. The kitchen itself offers a range of matching wall and base units, integrated appliances and granite worksurfaces.

Located within close proximity are two generous sized double bedrooms each of which with inbuilt wardrobes. The bathroom has been impressively clad in marble style tiles with large shower, low level W.C and basin, all of which offering quality fittings. The property benefits further from gas central heating and has a separate utility/storage area, not to mention two parking spaces.

Location

With a rich history spanning four centuries, Bristol's modern day Old Market district has a unique character built from its vibrant residents and businesses alike. You will discover an eclectic blend of vintage stores and independent shops mixed with cool cafés, bars and restaurants as well as art and music venues. On its doorstep, the bustling bars, cafés, theatres and shops of the city centre are all within easy reach and the renowned Cabot Circus shopping centre is just a short walk away.

Voted 'best place to live' by The Sunday Times in 2017, the city is renowned for its rich heritage and vibrant culture. Birthplace of 'Banksy' and home to Brunel's Clifton Suspension Bridge, Bristol plays host to the Bristol Harbour Festival and Bristol International Balloon Fiesta annually, bringing excitement and colour to this already thriving modern city.
