The Property

This quintessential "Regency Style" cottage is full of charm and character and forms part of a terrace of similar properties in a sought after and exclusive enclave just off Lower Redland Road within a short walk of the shops, restaurants and other amenities of Whiteladies Road. Redland is predominantly an area of larger Victorian houses so properties in this location of a manageable size are extremely rare. The property epitomises period style living but provides an ideal opportunity for an imaginative buyer to impose their own interpretation of modern day trends. Some basic updating will, undoubtedly, enhance the existing period features.

The house has colour washed rendered elevations and occupies a fine location standing back from the road with a generous and mature landscaped front garden (circa 15 meters long) with a small courtyard to the rear.

The Freehold accommodation is arranged over two floors (1240 Sq Ft) and comprises a sitting room, dining room, kitchen and cloakroom on the ground floor with three bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor. Gas central heating ensures this period gem is kept cosy in the winter whilst the garden provides an additional recreational space for the summer.

Sold with vacant possession and no onward chain.

Location

Redland is amongst the most sought after and coveted locations in the city and remains an incredibly popular family suburb.

The area offers a mix of suburban convenience, with open green spaces such as Durdham Downs within only 300m. There are excellent amenities on the nearby North View and both Whiteladies Road and Park Street provide a wide range of supermarkets, shops, restaurants and pubs.

A choice of primary and secondary schools are nearby and, in addition, there is excellent access to the City, as well as to Cribbs Causeway and the motorway network.
