THE PROPERTY

LOCATION

Queen Square is a historic public square located in the City Centre, originally built in the 18th century and named Queen Anne, the square is surrounded by Georgian-style buildings and features a central garden area with trees, benches, and a statue of William III. Historically Queen Square was a fashionable residential area for wealthy merchants and businessmen however during World War II, many of the buildings were damaged or destroyed by bombing and in the post-war period, the square was rebuilt and became a commercial and office district. Today, Queen Square is a popular gathering place for locals and tourists alike. It is often used for outdoor events and festivals, including the Bristol Harbour Festival and the Balloon Fiesta. There are several restaurants and cafes surrounding the square, as well as shops and offices. In terms of local amenities, Queen Square is located close to several attractions and landmarks, including the Bristol Hippodrome theatre, St. Nicholas Market, and the Bristol Old Vic. It is also within walking distance of the waterfront area, which features the SS Great Britain and the M Shed museum.

IMPORTANT AUCTION INFORMATION

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1000 + VAT (£1,200 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

The registration process is extremely simple – visit the Hollis Morgan auction website and click on the “Register to Bid” button.
