REDUCED PRICE FOR AUCTION

The property was previously listed with respected local agents for £299,000 and is now offered with a reduced guide price for a sale by live online auction.

DAMP ISSUES

We are aware of potential damp issues at the property that will require attention and a quote is available to review in the online legal pack. We understand the existing DPC (Damp proof course) has failed to ground floor which is allowing moisture to rise up the brick/stone and through the plaster. Interested parties to make their own investigations.
