LOCATION

Gloucester Road is one of Bristol's most famous roads, lined in this part of Horfield by mature trees and large Victorian homes. Residents benefit from its proximity to many highly regarded independent shops, café's and pubs. The Inn on the Green, micropub The Drapers Arms and the Bath Ales Pub, The Wellington offer locals a good atmosphere and choice of food and drink. Local butchers MJ Dalton is famed nearby for its traditional and exotic meats. For sports fans both The Memorial Stadium and The County Cricket Ground are nearby, whilst the recently renovated Horfield Leisure Centre offers on the city's best choices of sports and activities. The area benefits hugely from its proximity to major areas of employment, such as Southmead Hospital, Airbus and Rolls-Royce and this is a good position for anyone who needs regular access to these places, as well as Bristol City Centre, a short journey down the A38. Despite holding its convenient position it is still quiet in the house, even with windows open.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

If you would like to arrange a survey or mortgage valuation of this Lot BEFORE the auction please instruct your appointed surveyor to contact Hollis Morgan and we will arrange access for them to inspect the property.
