THE PROPERTY

A Freehold new build end of terrace 2 bedroom house located on the corner of Alfred Street with accommodation arranged over two floors and enclosed rear garden plus off street parking space.

Sold with vacant possession.

LOCATION

Victoria Parade is a quiet residential street located close to the vibrant Church Road on the popular St. George and Redfield Borders. Local amenities and services including independent retailers, pubs, bars and restaurants are all within walking distance. Bristol City Centre is approximately two miles away.

THE OPPORTUNITY

CASH BUYERS ONLY

We are informed by our clients solicitors of the following information regarding the building which is likely to affect your ability to obtain a mortgage on the property at this stage.

The construction of the Property was pursuant to a conditional Planning Permission. One of the pre commencement conditions was that prior to construction a coal mining report be commissioned setting out the feasibility of the build and the steps that should be taken in the light of the underground rock strata . This is a fairly common Condition in Planning Permissions for Properties located in what formed part of the East Bristol Coalfields. The Seller due to a breakdown of communication with his Planning Consultant and Builders, built the house without the procurement of the Coal Report and discharge of the condition.

Please refer to the online legal pack for further details.

REDUCED PRICE FOR AUCTION

The property was previously listed with local agents at £270,000 and is now offered with a reduced price for sale by public auction.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1000 + VAT (£1,200 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
