THE PROPERTY

A Freehold Grade II Listed period property understood to date from the early 19th century, and comprises Flemish bond brickwork facades, with tripartite sashed windows under a tile roof. A tent-hood lead canopy covers the full width of the ground floor property frontage, with cast iron decorative cresting to the outer edge.
The property benefits from a private (communal) garden to the rear.
The accommodation is arranged over 4 floors (basement, ground, first, second and third)) and is accessed off Church Street via a communal doorway into an alleyway running the full depth of the property to the rear garden. Off the alley way is the main door into the ground floor hallway, with access to the basement, ground floor flat (18A) , first floor flat (18B) and the upper maisonette (18C).
Sold with vacant possession.
