THE PROPERTY

This is a quintessential period family house ( 2295 Sq Ft ) of classic proportions set well back from the road with its own driveway and two garages and parking. This semi-detached house has all the elegance associated with Victorian era with spacious rooms and some retained period features. There is an imposing entrance hall with a staircase to the first floor whilst on the ground floor a now combined drawing room and dining room, breakfast room, kitchen and conservatory and associated utility areas provide very adequate living accommodation. The first floor has four bedrooms and a bathroom.

Freehold and sold with vacant possession.

LOCATION

Libertus Road is an interesting road with an eclectic mix of individual character properties mostly with good size gardens adding to the charm of this area. The centre of this historic town is easily accessible with its plethora of quality shops, other facilities within the area include schools, churches and sports facilities. GCHQ is within a short distance whilst the famous Cheltenham Racecourse lies on the outskirts of the town. There is a direct and quick connection to the M5 motorway giving access to the Midlands and the south west and connecting with the M4 motorway just north of Bristol.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Now in need of modernisation the property will make an exceptionally fine home whilst the slightly wild and romantic gardens, which can only be described as gargantuan, provide the ambiance of a county setting to this gem of a suburban house.

The good road frontage and the size of the plot opens up a variety of possibilities. Apart from being an exceptional home, the property also has investment and development potential subject, of course, to obtaining any necessary planning and other consents.

FAMILY HOME FOR UPDATING

The property would benefit from updating but has scope for a fine family home with further opportunities to extend to side and rear.

POTENTIAL PLOT

The garages could be demolished to provide a plot for an additional property.

HMO / INVESTMENT

With the addition of an extension to the existing house it may be possible to create some flats or an HMO.

PREVIOUS PLANNING HISTORY

We understand that in the past planning was granted to build in the rear garden but this was later refused when applied to be renewed.

10/00512/TIME - Extension of time limit for implementation of outline planning permission ref. 06/01906/OUT for the erection of a new dwelling in rear garden

EPC

For full details of the EPC please refer to the online legal pack.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1000 + VAT (£1,200 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
