REDUCED PRICE FOR AUCTION

The property was previously listed at £275,000 with local agents and is now offered with a reduced price for auction

CASH BUYERS ONLY

Interested parties need to be aware that previous sales have fallen through due to the following issues.

ROOF

Water Ingress at chimney breast in main bedroom from Roof

Whilst the Freeholder has done some temporary repairs further works are required to both the Valley and the rear Gutters ( Copy of recent quotes available in the online legal pack but we are informed the costs are circa £5-7k )

MANAGEMENT COMPANY

Ongoing Property Management ( Freeholder )

We understand The Freeholder own 3 of the 4 flats in the block with no evidence of a sinking fund, 3rd part management company or formal established process in place to manage the building.

The vendors have been supplied independent legal advice ( copy available in the online legal pack ) suggesting that the freeholder situation can be potentially resolved by appointing a new management company, the new owners can rely on the contract of the lease and Logwin not fulfilling their obligations by applying to the property tribunal to appoint a manager then a formal notice would need to be served in accordance with section 22 of the Landlord and Tenancy Act 1987.

Noteworthy that over the duration (circa 15 years) of the vendor's ownership, property maintenance has successfully been completed through informal agreements whereby the Freeholder would pay  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the costs and Leaseholder paying the remaining  $\frac{1}{4}$ .

Please make your own investigations.

IMPORTANT AUCTION INFORMATION

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1000 + VAT (£1,200 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
