THE PROPERTY

A Freehold commercial premises with accommodation (2795 Sq.Ft) arranged over 3 floors plus basement and roof terrace. The property has a substantial frontage and an excellent trading position in this sort after semi pedestrianised area of the City Centre just moments from Gloucester Cathedral.
Crucially there is established pedestrian access to the side of the property leading to an independent staircase providing access to the upper floors.
We understand the property has been previously used for retail, offices and storage.
Sold with vacant possession.

VAT - We are informed the property is subject to VAT - please refer to online legal pack.

LOCATION

The property is located on the busy and vibrant Westgate Street which offers an array of amenities including high street retailers, convenience stores, cafes and public houses. The Gloucester Quays outlet shopping centre, which is within a short walk of the property, is one of the largest and most ambitious regeneration developments in the UK. Ideally located to serve the M5 corridor from Bristol to Birmingham, it offers a unique architectural waterside setting complemented by designer brand shops, affluent bars and gourmet restaurants.
