This well presented two bedroom retirement flat for the over 60's is ideally located on the top floor, having a beautiful Westerly view over the communal garden. The larger than usual flat is well presented throughout to a neutral colour scheme. There is a lounge with space for a dining table which leads into a fitted kitchen with appliances. Both of the bedrooms are good size double rooms with one having mirror fronted wardrobes. The bathroom has the benefit of a bath with a fitted shower and screen above. Unusually, there is plenty of storage space provided by two cupboards located in the hallway. Other points of interest include electric heating, double glazed windows and emergency pull cords in each room should assistance be required. Lilac Court itself, boasts it's very own warden, a communal lounge, laundry room and a well tended to garden which the residents can enjoy at their leisure. Viewing is recommended.
