GUIDE PRICE £650,000 - £700,000

Situated in the popular Fiveways district is this delightful property which offers a unique blend of history and modern living. Originally a Greengrocer shop back in 1905, this house was tastefully converted into a residential home in the late 1960s, preserving its character while embracing contemporary comforts.

As you step inside, you'll be greeted by the open plan through lounge/dining room, perfect for entertaining guests or simply unwinding after a long day. The modern fitted kitchen benefits white high gloss units and integrated appliances, with a feature glazed door opening onto the rear garden.

As the house flows through upstairs you will find three double bedrooms, each offering a peaceful retreat for a good night's sleep and the master benefitting from an en-suite cloakroom and stunning views across Brighton and towards the sea. Not forgetting the large family bathroom providing a luxurious space to relax and rejuvenate.

One of the highlights of this home is its beautiful interior period features seamlessly combined with modern design elements, flat plastered walls and ceilings, creating a harmonious and stylish living space.

Step outside to discover the southerly aspect garden with its large patio sitting area and laid to lawn, where you can enjoy the sunshine. Whether you're sipping your morning coffee or hosting a summer barbecue, this garden is sure to be a favourite spot for relaxation.

Don't miss the opportunity to own this charming piece of history with all the comforts of modern living. This property on Sandgate Road is a true gem waiting for the right owner to call it home.

Sandgate Road is situated in an extremely desirable location, shopping facilities are available at the nearby Fiveways with its vibrant range of local independent shops, cafes and bars. Numerous local schools catering for all ages are nearby including Balfour, Downs, Dorothy Stringer and Varndean, Preston Park and Brighton mainline stations are easily accessible providing a commuter service to Gatwick and London. There is easy access out of the city onto the main London Road/A23 and the A27, and local bus services are also near to hand providing easy access to Brighton city centre and seafront.
