Ready for occupation from early February is this ground and first floor maisonette located in the popular Hanover district of Brighton. The lovely interior is decorated with white walls and grey coloured carpets. The kitchen has fitted high gloss units, plenty of work top space along with integrated cooking appliances. This social space is great for entertaining as it is open plan to the living room. The bathroom/WC has a white fitted suite having an over bath shower and screen. On the first floor are three bedrooms, two double rooms with built in wardrobe cupboards and one smaller single room. The property is available to let on an unfurnished, long term basis. The property does not have a licence for multiple occupation/students and would therefore be suited to a family or professional couple. Other points worthy of a mention include double glazing, gas central heating and far reaching views over the City. Great local pubs, easy walk to the Station and City centre. COUNCIL TAX BAND C

A stunning maisonette just a short walk to the iconic Brighton Pier, the infamous Lanes and the Royal Pavillion. Seafront, shops, and amenities and also within a short walking distance away aswell as the Brighton Mainline Train Station.
