On the highly sought-after Linkfield Road in Isleworth, this charming semi-detached house presents an excellent opportunity for families and professionals alike. With three bedrooms and family bathroom and downstairs WC. Upon entering the ground floor, you will find a spacious double reception, this property has also been freshly painted throughout, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere. The kitchen / diner is ready for your personal touch, with a sink and unit already in place, allowing you to install your preferred kitchen design. From here, you can step out into a generous garden. The first floor comprises three inviting bedrooms, complemented by a family bathroom that has been recently updated. This property has an up-to-date Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR) for peace of mind. Situated in the heart of the community, this home is surrounded by a variety of local shops and cafes. Additionally, the area benefits from a regular hopper bus service to Richmond and St Margaret's, while Isleworth Station provides convenient access to Waterloo, perfect for commuters. Off-street parking adds to the appeal of this delightful property.
