A Simply stunning semi detached property situated in an excellent location and within easy distance of Isleworth station serving Waterloo via the Great West Road connection with Heathrow and Central London. Osterley Piccadilly line is the closest tube station. This home has been beautifully improved and extended by its present owners to form spacious and well planned accommodation over three floors. There are many stand out features and these include a fabulous kitchen and entertainment area with separate utility room. There are four bathrooms in total, the first floor provides three bedrooms, one with ensuite, and family bathroom, the top floor affords the principal bedroom again with ensuite and Juliette balcony. The property boasts a individual front reception room and impressive lounge area with vaulted ceiling and sky lights over the terrace and garden. There is a large rectangular garden and paved front garden. This home is available chain free and is highly recommended by the owners sole agents.
