We are delighted to bring to market this beautiful character cottage that can be found at the end of a shared ribbon driveway in this quiet village location, ensuring much privacy in a peaceful location. Internally, the property has been very tastefully renovated by the current vendors, taking great advantage of many of the original cottage features. Particularly worth noting is the presence of not one but two inglenook fireplaces with wood burners, complemented by double glazing throughout. On entry through the porch at the front, you will find yourself in a very well equipped and modern kitchen which opens out into the dining room which has the first of the traditional fireplaces and where open stairs lead to the first floor. From the kitchen, a hallway leads to a utility room and a large, very well presented family bathroom with both a separate bath and a large double shower cubicle. A particularly cosy lounge, from where access can be gained to the rear garden, is full of character including a panelled ceiling feature and uniquely tiled walls, complemented by the other traditional fireplace with log burner and recesses each side. To the first floor, the main bedroom benefits from far reaching countryside views over the rear garden to the south east, whilst the second bedroom has a built in wardrobe. Externally, a gravel driveway has parking for several vehicles complemented by a double garage offering additional storage space above. To the side of the garage, steps lead up towards a delightful summerhouse with both power and lighting. A further set of steps lead up to a raised decking area with a north westerly outlook. The sheltered rear garden offers much to interest a keen gardener where a large fish pond can also be found. Set in the village of Carn Brea, the property gives great access to a number of countryside walks. In terms of amenities, Redruth town centre which offers both independent and chain stores, cafes, a cinema and public houses. A main line railway station in the town gives links to London and bus services to Truro and Falmouth. Further afield, Portreath Beach on the north coast is within fifteen minutes drive as well as many other local beaches and attractions being nearby, including Tehidy Country Park and Tehidy Park Golf Club.
