Burnwithian Cottage Burnwithian

St. Day, Redruth, TR16 5LG

An early viewing is recommended to appreciate this most bright and airy family home, situated on the edge of the historic village of St Day, down a cul-de-sac lane but close to local amenities. Positioned on a delightful, elevated plot, with tremendous views to the south and up towards Carn Marth, the three bedrooms to the rear all benefit from the lovely views not to mention a large south facing conservatory/sun room. The roots of the property actually go back to the 1850's! Upgraded significantly by the current vendors since they moved in including a new kitchen with a breakfast bar and new UPVC windows and doors, there is very good sized living accommodation on offer with the conservatory/sun room accessible from the lounge. There is a ground floor study and it could be that a new owner may wish to re-purpose to a bedroom giving that there is a separate toilet. The rear of the garage/utility can also be accessed from this room. The first floor is particularly bright and airy, with all three bedrooms benefiting from the spectacular views over open countryside. The bedrooms are complemented by a functional family bathroom, stylishly fitted with metro tiles for a clean finish and including a thermostatic shower over the bath. Externally, the current vendors have upgraded the garden to take advantage of the south facing elevation which make it an ideal socialising environment with a BBQ/bar area and wood/gas supplied outdoor pizza oven. To the front, there is a tarmac and part gravelled driveway with parking for four/five vehicles, complemented by the single garage should the new owners wish to re-purpose back to vehicle storage. In terms of location, there are many local amenities in the village within walking distance including two convenience stores, a Post Office, butchers, pharmacy, a public house and St Day & Carharrack Community School. There is also a second public house nearby, in the hamlet of Vogue, St. Day, which is within a fifteen minute walk. The centre of Redruth can be reached in a few minutes by car. Further afield, both Falmouth and Truro are equidistant and can be reached in around twenty five minutes by car. The coastal town of Portreath, with its beach and access to the South West Coastal Path, can be reached in less than twenty minutes by car whilst the largest area of woodland in West Cornwall, Tehidy Country Park along with Tehidy Park Golf Club, are within a similar distance. The property location is also within proximity to many other North Cornwall coastal towns as well as other surrounding attractions being easily accessible. There are bus services and it is also worth noting that there are many local walks to be found around the St. Day area with Carn Marth accessible on foot, being within around a forty minute walk from this property.
