Daisy Cottage, 6 Vogue Hill

St. Day, Redruth, TR16 5NQ

We are informed that this property was originally a mine captain's residence built around 1845. It certainly still has some Georgian influence combined with Victorian features. Well presented by the vendors, it does have a good array of solar panels, double glazing, some modern electric radiators and a wood burner to one room plus a multi fuel burner to the other reception room. There is an entrance sun lounge/office leading through to a hallway and then through to the two reception rooms, a downstairs wc plus a well proportioned kitchen. To the first floor there are three bedrooms with the master bedroom having a range of Sharp fitted wardrobes. There are two further bedrooms plus a landing and half landing with a fine staircase. Externally there is an area of garden to the front with a lovely enclosed rear garden. There is no other way to describe it, it is sheltered, very thoughtfully laid out and well stocked with a variety of plants and shrubs etc to include a tree fern, tropical flowers, soft fruits, climbing roses and hydrangeas. To the rear there is a covered barbeque area and to the side of this is a pizza oven plus a pergola with a hot tub making it an ideal area for entertaining. Beyond this there is also a greenhouse and a further outbuilding. The property is handy for St Day village which has a post office and shopping facilities plus a butchers and a bus service. At the bottom of the hill is the very well known Star Inn and St Day Inn can be found in the village itself. The village is well known for its community activities.
