

1 St Helena, Graig, Burry Port, Carmarthenshire, SA16 0ED

Offers in the region of £179,995

Miners cottage with approximately a quarter of an acre of garden and woodland to the side of the cottage in this quiet hidden valley in the Graig area of Burry Port, popular coastal town.

Please note the cottage does require some works.

The cottage is the first in a block of three, dating back we have been informed as over 200 years old, solid stone walls, off road parking next to the house and tucked away with woods enveloping you on this no through road.

Used as a successful holiday let and also a charming home. Garden is all to the side of the cottage and sweeps up the side of the valley, currently largely woodland but could be cultivated further, there is a grassed garden closer to house. Living space offers you one large living room with wood burning stove, galley kitchen running the full width of the cottage. First floor 3 bedrooms a study/dressing room, and bathroom. You really feel away from the world in the valley St Helena sits in with the sound of the stream close by, your haven of birds and trees yet you can still stroll into Burry Port and the coastline.
