Croft Cottage, Green Dene

East Horsley, Surrey

Originally built we understand in the 1930's, Croft Cottage now offers the incoming owner a rare opportunity at the gateway to the Surrey Hills.

This chalet bungalow offers the perfect "blank canvass" on which to create a fabulous home fit for 21st century living.

Once across the threshold the accommodation is currently laid out as a sitting room with triple aspect and french doors giving access to the rear gardens. There is a separate kitchen, again having access to the rear gardens, and benefitting from a pantry and various built-in appliances.

The hallways gives access to 3 further ground floor rooms, which could be utilized as either bedroom accommodation or as additional reception rooms, depending on the needs of the incoming owners.

To the first floor, there is a shower room with wash hand basin and WC, and a useful attic room/bedroom with window overlooking the rear gardens.

The rear gardens extend to over some 0.4 acres, with mature planting and offering delightful views to toward the rear boundary across the rooftop over open countryside. Currently having a small patio area, greenhouse and storage sheds, this offers a wonderful opportunity for landscaping to ones own design.

The property also benefits from an attached single garage, and generous off street parking for numerous vehicles on the gated frontage.

Green Dene is a very popular semi-rural location: by turning right from the driveway there is easy access to open countryside and excellent walking and hiking, whilst by turning in the opposite direction, you are connected towards the Little Waitrose, Duke of Wellington PH and the main shops and station of Horsley village, a further mile distant.
