This exceptional five to six-bedroom terraced home is an absolute standout, beautifully presented from top to bottom and offering an incredible amount of space across three generous floors.

The ground floor provides two reception rooms, perfect for both family life and entertaining, as well as a spacious and modern kitchen. As you move upstairs, the home continues to impress. The first floor hosts a versatile room currently used as a utility but equally suited as an additional bedroom or home office a W.C. and then the true showpiece of the property, the stunning master suite.

The master bedroom is flooded with natural light from two large windows, including an elegant bay. From here, step through into a dedicated dressing room and a beautifully finished en-suite, completed to an exceptionally high standard.

The second floor offers even more flexibility, with four further well-proportioned bedrooms and an additional modern bathroom, making this home perfectly suited to growing families or those needing multiple work-from-home spaces.

Outside, a spacious rear yard provides a private spot to relax and unwind.

Homes of this size and finish rarely come to market in such impressive condition. Stylish, spacious, and ready to move straight into, this is a property that truly needs to be viewed!
