Wonderful three-bedroom semi-detached home offering generous living space, ideal for a growing family or first-time buyer. Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in the ever-popular village of Galgate, the property enjoys beautiful rear views across rolling countryside. The home has also benefited from a first-floor extension, creating an additional bedroom and enhancing the overall accommodation.

The property welcomes you with a bright and comfortable lounge that flows through to a spacious kitchen diner, fitted with country cream cabinets that give a warm, traditional feel. From here, the home continues into a lovely sun room, providing a relaxing space to enjoy views over the garden and surrounding countryside. A door from the sun room leads to the large integral garage, which is thoughtfully divided into three useful sections, offering excellent storage and versatile workspace options.

On the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The loft room offers excellent potential to create additional living space, subject to the necessary permissions.

Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking to the front alongside a small garden area. The rear garden is fully enclosed and features a raised decked patio, perfectly positioned to make the most of the countryside views and provide an ideal space for relaxing or entertaining.

Galgate is well known for its welcoming community atmosphere and attractive rural surroundings. The Lancaster Canal runs through the village, offering picturesque waterside walks right on your doorstep, perfect for strolls, morning jogs, or simply enjoying the peaceful setting. Despite its tranquil feel, the property is just four miles from Lancaster city centre, providing excellent access to shops, restaurants, transport links, and Lancaster University.
