LOCATION

Situated on the edge of St Leonards Gardens, just a two minute stroll to the sea. The development is a triumphant transformation of Decimus Burton buildings nestled within an exclusive and historical part of St Leonards. Only a short walk away is St Leonards town centre with great bars, restaurants, independent galleries and shops on Norman Road and Kings Road. Many high-profile individuals have been regular visitors to St Leonards Gardens and the properties surrounding, amongst them Her Majesty Queen Victoria, the writer H. Rider Haggard who occupied the The North Lodge, and Alan Turing. St Leonards Gardens today enjoys a tranquil setting with a range of plants, trees and wildlife with the star of the show being the central ornamental pond. The location offers two mainline railway stations with services to London from St Leonards Warrior Square and West St Leonards. As well as the seafront being on your door step, the location offers easy access to the fantastic Hastings pier, main town and historic old town with a wide variety of independent retailers found close by can also be enjoyed. There are many highly regarded schools within short reach of this family home such as Battle Abbey School, Claremont, Vinehall and Buckswood.
