*** END OF CHAIN *** RENOVATION *** A great opportunity to purchase this detached, stone cottage with two double bedrooms and backing onto pastureland. The village lies in the heart of the Blackmore Vale countryside and boasts a primary school and ancient church. For everyday facilities the village of Marnhull is approximately 2 miles away with further facilities about five miles away in the historic hilltop town of Shaftesbury and four miles to Gillingham, which has a mainline train station.

This lovely home boasts many character features with some windows having a leaded light finish and deep windowsills, exposed ceiling beams, upright timbers and floorboards and a wonderful inglenook fireplace with bressummer beam and bread oven were revealed during the restoration. A viewing is essential to truly appreciate what this delightful home has to offer and how it would satisfy many needs from those looking for a full-time home in a village location to those seeking a peaceful retreat from a hectic city life.

In brief, the ground floor accommodation consists of entrance hall, dual aspect sitting room with open fireplace, kitchen area that is fitted with plenty of soft closing units and some integrated appliances and dining area with inglenook fireplace and original bread oven. There is also a rear lobby with access to the side of the cottage and to the shower room. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, the main with potential for an en-suite. Outside there is a timber garage, brick built store housing the boiler and garden, which backs onto pastureland.
