The Property

Accommodation

Inside

Ground Floor
The front door opens into a reception area with a further door that opens into the main entrance. This has plenty of space for coats, boots and shoes, and stairs rise up to the main accommodation. There is a landing with ample room for a study space and doors lead off to the main rooms. For practicality and appearance, the floor is laid in a wood effect laminate that continues through into the open plan living space and into bedroom two.

The spacious open plan living space, looks out to the front of the property and has a view of trees, which in winter would allow field views. There is ample space for relaxing and dining. There is also a large storage cupboard that houses the boiler. The kitchen is fitted with floor cupboards with drawers and a tall larder style cupboard fitted with shelves. You will find a good amount of work surfaces with a matching upstand and a stainless steel sink and drainer with a mixer tap. There is space for a fridge/freezer and the washing machine is integrated. The electric oven is built in with a gas hob and extractor hood above.

The main bathroom has an arched window to the front of the building and is fitted with a modern suite consisting of a bath with mixer tap and hand held shower attachment, a WC and a pedestal wash hand basin. The floor is laid in an attractive and practical ceramic tile effect vinyl. There is a single bedroom and a good sized double bedroom, which benefits from an en-suite shower room.

Outside

Garage and Parking

There is a good sized single garage with parking in front for one car, which is located at the left hand end of the block by the garden gate. There is also another space for visitors to the Coach House - this is in front of the door.

Courtyard Garden

From the parking area there is a timber gate that opens to a courtyard garden, which is laid to paving stones and provides a delightful outdoor space for relaxing and pottering.

Location and Directions

The property is located in the popular and pretty village of Motcombe which lies between the towns of Gillingham and Shaftesbury and not far from the Wiltshire village of Mere. The village itself boasts and active community with villagers looking after communal areas and running the village shop which also has a tea room and visiting post office. There is a village hall which hosts a variety of activities with the recreational ground lying behind. The parish church was rebuilt in 1846 and has a font dating back to Norman times and the primary school is situated close by. Just outside the village there is the Copperidge Inn with rooms and a restaurant and is a popular location for wedding parties. Shaftesbury and Gillingham both offer a good selection of independent shops and chain stores with Gillingham having a mainline train station serving London Waterloo and the West Country.
