Welcome to a home where memories have been made and where new ones are ready to begin. Tucked away on the edge of town, just as the countryside unfolds, this much-loved detached house offers the perfect balance of peace, space, and practicality—with views over green fields where sheep quietly graze.

This beautifully presented home offers stylish, move-in ready living with plenty of potential to make it your own. Inside, the generous layout gives you the freedom to live just the way you want—whether you're hosting lively family gatherings or carving out quiet corners to unwind.

There are four double bedrooms, two with their own en-suites, plus a main bathroom—ideal for growing families or welcoming guests. Downstairs, the spacious entrance hall leads to two versatile reception rooms, a bright kitchen, and from the kitchen, a handy utility room, and there is also a cloakroom.

The real beauty? While the house is in lovely condition throughout, there's still scope to add your own style and create a home that truly reflects you.

Outside, there's plenty of space for bikes, buggies, and BBQs—with ample parking, gated access, a double garage, and a large, private and beautifully landscaped rear garden where children and pets can play, and adults can relax.

Local life is easy, with a pub, pharmacy, doctor, dentist, and a well-regarded primary school all nearby. And when you need to head into town or catch a train, the centre and mainline station are just 1.5 miles away.

Offered chain-free, this is a rare chance to make a warm, welcoming, and wonderfully located house your forever home.
