A Much-Loved 19th Century Cottage with Character, Comfort & a Magical Garden – West Stour

Situated in a quiet lane close to the heart of West Stour, this charming semi-detached cottage has been a well-loved home — full of character, warmth, and soul. Dating back to the 1800s, it still carries the charm of its heritage, with some exposed ceiling beams, stone walls, original floorboards, and two beautiful fireplaces — one open and the other home to a cosy wood-burning stove — perfect for quiet evenings in.

The heart of the home is the light-filled kitchen/breakfast room, part of a thoughtfully designed extension with a pitched roof, fitted with plenty of cupboard space and an electric range cooker adding to the character. It's a space where morning coffee, Sunday baking, and casual meals come naturally. There are also two welcoming reception rooms downstairs, along with a ground floor bathroom — practical and comfortable. Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms, including a main bedroom with its own en-suite, and a third generous single that makes a lovely study, nursery or creative space.

The garden is a true joy — private, sunny, and lovingly cared for. There's a shaped central lawn, raised beds bursting with colour in the warmer months, and a peaceful decked seating area that catches the afternoon and evening sun just beautifully. Whether you're hosting friends, reading in the sun, or simply enjoying the stillness, it's a space that feels like a retreat. Two sheds (one with power) offer great storage or workshop potential, and there's parking for at least one car.

This is a home with a heart — full of character, thoughtfully updated, and located in a friendly village community with countryside on your doorstep.
