Lark Close Bruton

Guide Price
£400,000

A fantastic opportunity to purchase a fabulous detached family home with four double bedrooms, situated on the fringe of the town and enjoying rural views from the rear to Alfred's Tower and Stourhead in the distance. The property is a short walk to the centre of Bruton, which is one of England's smallest towns and has a thriving friendly community and is well served with a variety of shops catering for everyday needs, a post office and petrol station. There is a choice of restaurants and cafes, public houses plus a centre for Education and Arts. In addition, the town boasts three highly rated schools, vet, doctor and dentist surgery and the train station is on the Bristol to Weymouth line. This beautifully presented property has been the very much cherished and enjoyed home to our sellers since new. During time it has been extremely well cared for and has benefitted from a redesigned kitchen with new stylish soft closing units and solid wood work surfaces plus integrated appliances and most windows have been fitted with shutters. In addition, the property benefits from the remainder of the National House Building Guarantee, uPVC double glazing throughout and gas fired central heating with a dual zone programme allowing for separate control for the ground and first floor. It is vital that this home be viewed to truly appreciate what it has to offer and how easily it will satisfy many potential buyers needs.

In brief, the ground floor accommodation consists of good sized welcoming entrance hall, double aspect sitting room and a fabulous open plan family space with kitchen and dining area. There is also a larger than average cloakroom. On the first floor there is the family bathroom and four double bedrooms, main with en-suite shower room. Outside, there are front and rear gardens, parking for three cars and a double garage with light and power.
