A Charming Slice of Industrial Heritage – Mid-Terrace Stone Cottage with Character and Soul:-

Full of warmth, character, and quiet history, this handsome mid-terraced stone cottage dates back to the 1860s and is thought to have originally housed middle management from the local iron works. Lovingly cared for by the same family for over 30 years, it offers a rare opportunity to make a very special house your own.

Tucked behind original metal railings crowned with fleur-de-lys finials, the cottage welcomes you with its timeless Victorian charm. Inside, you'll find beautifully preserved features including high ceilings, picture rails, and sympathetic UPVC sash windows in the traditional style—all blending comfort with authenticity.

The layout offers a flexible flow of living space: a welcoming sitting room to the front, complete with bay window and feature fireplace, and a second reception room currently used as a dining area, with its own fireplace and original-style built-in cabinetry. These interchangeable spaces invite creativity and comfort in equal measure.

To the rear, a generous kitchen unfolds into a light-filled breakfast area or garden room—perfect for casual dining, morning coffee, or quiet reflection overlooking the private courtyard garden framed by rustic stone walling.

Upstairs on the first floor are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the top floor reveals a wonderfully characterful third double bedroom, featuring the unusual and beautiful detail of two arched chimneys merging into a single stack—a subtle architectural nod to the home's industrial past.

With views across the rooftops to Trinity Church, this home sits just a short stroll from the heart of town, offering both convenience and a sense of place. With scope to personalise and make it your own, this is an ideal forever home, first move, or heritage-rich retreat for someone seeking both story and substance.
