A porch leads through to the sitting room, a good sized reception space with a pleasant outlook to the front. The kitchen diner has been updated and fitted with modern gloss units and laminate worktops, with an eye level electric oven, electric hob with extractor and an under counter wine fridge. A window overlooks the rear garden and French doors lead directly outside, making it a bright and sociable everyday space. Off the main living areas, a converted garage now creates a useful utility room and study, both practical additions to the layout. A ground floor WC completes the accommodation at this level.
