A well presented two bedroom mid terrace house set within a quiet cul de sac on the edge of Gillingham, Dorset's most northerly town nestled within the Blackmore Vale. Well served for everyday needs, the town offers a good range of supermarkets, independent shops, cafes, a leisure centre, a well regarded secondary school and a mainline railway station with direct services to London Waterloo and Exeter. Shaftesbury is around five miles to the east whilst the A303 is within easy reach, offering good onward road connections across the South West.

Thoughtfully improved by the current owners over nine years, the accommodation extends to approximately 575 square feet across two floors. On the ground floor a generous sitting room diner sits alongside a kitchen with a door to the garden. Upstairs two bedrooms are served by a family bathroom. During their ownership a number of improvements have been carried out including new flooring, a new bathroom, freshly painted kitchen units and a new gas heating system with radiators throughout.

Outside, a beautifully presented south facing rear garden enjoys excellent privacy and is not overlooked. Allocated parking spaces are available in a nearby block.

The Property

Inside

Ground Floor

Entering through the front door, the sitting room diner is a well proportioned and versatile space with natural light coming in well from both the front and rear of the property.

The kitchen has recently been refreshed with newly painted units and laminate worktops, creating a practical and well considered space. A door leads directly out to the rear garden.

First Floor

Stairs rise to the first floor landing where two bedrooms are found, both a good size. A well appointed bathroom serves the two rooms and has been replaced by the current owners.

Outside

Garden

A south facing rear garden has been attractively landscaped by the current owners and enjoys excellent privacy, with no overlooking from neighbouring properties. A paved patio seating area sits adjacent to the house, stepping up to a gravel bed with raised planters and well established planting throughout, creating an appealing and easy to maintain outdoor space.

Parking

Allocated parking spaces are situated in a nearby block.
