Inside

A contemporary front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall, where glazed doors draw the eye through to the rear feature garden and terrace. Double doors lead into the generously proportioned, double-aspect sitting room with views over the rear garden and limestone-paved terrace, complemented by patio doors and a working log-burning stove providing a cosy winter focal point. An open flow connects seamlessly with the dining room, creating an easy and spacious ground-floor layout overlooking the front garden. The hallway, finished with striking black and white ceramic flooring, leads to a fitted cloakroom WC and stairs rising to the bedrooms and family bathroom. The kitchen/breakfast room forms the heart of the home, enjoying westerly views across the terrace and fitted with soft grey gloss, soft-closing units, generous work surfaces and a breakfast bar, alongside integrated appliances and a capacious coat and shoe cupboard. From here, a door opens to a delightful double-aspect study with tranquil views through vintage fruit trees towards the brook, ideal for home working, reading or occasional ground-floor accommodation. The rear garden extends to approximately 90 feet, planted with established fruit trees, a fruit cage and shrubs, ending at the brook where a mature ash tree provides a peaceful natural backdrop. To the front, timber gates open to parking for two vehicles, with additional ad hoc parking nearby, while a stone-built workshop—partly used as a studio or work-from-home space—offers light, power and excellent versatility. A new garden tool shed has recently been built.

Parking and Gardens
From the cul de sac, timber gates open to a drive that is laid to stone chippings and has room to park two cars comfortably. There is also a workshop (3.00 m x 2.79 m/9'10" x 9'2") and insulated work from home space (2.46 m x 2.79 m/8'1" x 9'2") that could be used for hobbies.

The main garden lies to the rear of the house, enjoying a southerly aspect and is surprisingly large. There is a generously sized paved sun terrace with room to host summer get-togethers with the rest of the garden being laid to lawn.
