Bayford Hill Wincanton

Guide Price
£375,000

A well proportioned Grade II listed Georgian semi-detached house offering characterful accommodation arranged over two floors, positioned in an elevated setting within easy reach of Wincanton town centre and the A303. The property enjoys a balance of period charm and practical living, with attractive views across the Blackmore Vale from the front-facing first floor rooms.

The house retains many original features typical of the Georgian era, including high ceilings, picture rails, traditional proportions and original fireplaces, all of which contribute to a sense of character and warmth throughout. The accommodation includes two reception rooms, three bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite facilities, along with a generous bath and shower room. To the rear of the house there is a good sized garden.

Bayford Hill is conveniently located for access to the town's shops, cafés and amenities, while also providing easy routes out into the surrounding countryside and wider South Somerset area. The slightly elevated position gives the property a pleasant outlook and a sense of separation from the town below.

The property is offered for sale with no onward chain, and a viewing is recommended to fully appreciate the accommodation, setting and character on offer.

Accommodation

Inside

The property is approached from the front via shared stone steps with the neighbouring house, which lead up to a pathway and the front door. This opens into an entrance hall which provides a welcoming introduction to the house, with stairs rising to the first floor and doors leading to the principal ground floor rooms. The sitting room is a comfortable and inviting space, featuring high ceilings, picture rails and a fireplace fitted with a wood-burning stove, creating a natural focal point for everyday living. The room enjoys good natural light and retains the traditional proportions expected of a property of this age.

The dining room is well proportioned and retains an open fireplace, making it suitable for both formal dining and everyday use. This room connects easily with the rest of the ground floor accommodation and works well for entertaining as well as family life. To the rear of the property, the kitchen is fitted with a good range of base and wall units, with integrated double oven, four-ring gas hob with extractor hood over, stainless steel sink with drainer and mixer tap, and space and services for a dishwasher and fridge. A door leads directly out to the rear courtyard and garden beyond. Beyond the kitchen there is a useful utility room providing additional storage and space for appliances, along with a ground floor cloakroom, adding to the overall practicality of the layout.

Stairs rise to the first floor landing, which gives access to all first floor accommodation. There are three bedrooms, including two double rooms and a versatile third bedroom suitable for use as a guest room, study or nursery. The principal bedroom benefits from an en-suite fitted with a shower cubicle, wash hand basin and WC. The front-facing bedrooms enjoy the elevated position of the house with views across the Blackmore Vale, adding to the sense of space and outlook. The bath and shower room is of a generous size and fitted with a white suite comprising a panelled bath with mixer tap and shower attachment, a separate glass shower enclosure, wash hand basin and WC. The room also benefits from a heated towel rail, built-in storage and windows to the rear providing natural light.

Outside

To the front of the property there is an area of garden laid to lawn to one side of the approach, edged by mature shrubs and planting, adding greenery and interest to the frontage. Immediately to the rear of the house there is a small courtyard area with a stone outhouse providing useful storage. Steps lead up from here to the main garden, which is of a good size and predominantly laid to lawn, bordered by established herbaceous planting and shrubs. The garden offers a pleasant and relatively private outdoor space, positioned above the town below.
