This enchanting Grade II listed semi-detached cottage, dating back to the early 18th century, is bursting with character and charm. Positioned in the heart of a sought-after village, it offers a perfect blend of period features and modern convenience – and with no onward chain, it's ready for its next chapter.

Stepping inside, you're welcomed into a home full of warmth and history. The sitting room is a cosy haven with a beautiful fireplace, bressummer beam, and a wood burner, perfect for curling up on chilly evenings. The deep window sills and a charming window seat add to the character, creating a delightful spot to watch the world go by. A second reception room, ideal as a snug or dining room, is equally inviting, with double doors opening onto the rear garden, flooding the space with natural light. The country-style kitchen, complete with an electric AGA, adds to the cottage's rustic charm, while a useful porch provides extra storage and practicality with plenty of room for coats, boots and shoes.

Upstairs, the two spacious double bedrooms continue the theme of character and comfort, offering a peaceful retreat at the end of the day.

Outside, the generous cottage garden is a private oasis, bathed in sunlight and perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The old stone outhouse and pump add to the character and there is a timber shed that offers fantastic storage. With parking for two to three cars, convenience is well covered.

Set in a picturesque village, this delightful home is full of history, charm, and warmth, offering a rare opportunity to embrace countryside living with ease. With no onward chain, this gem won't be available for long!
