Furge Grove Henstridge

Guide Price
£285,000

An attractive well proportioned semi detached family home with three generously sized bedrooms situated in a quiet road and within walking distance to the village centre. The village has a shop with post office, two public houses, primary school and village hall with recreation ground. The property is about fifteen and half years old and has been a very much loved and enjoyed home to our sellers for the last seven and half years. During this time the property has been well maintained and improved with a new combination external oil fired central heating boiler, new carpeting has been laid to the sitting room, hall stairs and landing plus a redecoration throughout. In addition, the property also benefits from uPVC double glazing and allocated parking. This lovely property provides bright well laid out accommodation that will certainly fulfil many potential buyers requirements - a great first time family home or downsize as well as satisfying many other criteria. A viewing is vital to truly appreciate what this home has to offer the next lucky owner.

In brief, the ground floor accommodation consists of good size welcoming entrance hall, dual aspect sitting room and combined kitchen and dining room. There is also a conservatory with outlook over the rear garden. On the first floor there is the family bathroom and three generously sized bedrooms. Outside there is a paved seating area to the side of the house, rear garden with 'Good as Grass' lawn and an enclosed area concealing the oil tank and timber shed. In addition there are two parking spaces to the back of the garden.
