A spacious end-of-terrace house situated in a convenient central town location, offering generous accommodation and practical family living close to local amenities.

Originally built in the late 1970s, the property provides bright and well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors. The house benefits from three double bedrooms, two reception rooms, a family bathroom, and a downstairs cloakroom, creating a flexible layout suited to families, couples, or professional tenants.

Naturally light and airy throughout, the property offers well-sized living spaces and a layout ideal for modern day-to-day living. A particular feature is the generous off-road parking together with an integrated garage — a rare advantage for a property positioned so conveniently close to the town centre.

The property enjoys an excellent location within easy reach of the amenities of Sturminster Newton, including independent shops, cafés, public houses, a supermarket, leisure centre, primary and secondary schooling, and scenic riverside walks along the River Stour.

Offering spacious accommodation in a well-served Dorset town, this home is ideally suited to tenants seeking convenient access to local amenities while enjoying comfortable family living.

Inside

The front door opens into an entrance hall providing access to the main ground floor accommodation. The sitting room is a comfortable and well-proportioned space, enjoying good natural light and suitable for everyday living. The second reception room provides further flexibility and could be used as a dining room, family room or home office, depending on individual needs.

The kitchen is fitted in a traditional style with shaker units and laminate worktops, offering ample storage and preparation space. The layout is practical and works well for day-to-day use, with room for freestanding appliances. From the kitchen there is access to a utility area, providing additional storage and appliance space, and a downstairs cloakroom, which adds convenience for family life and guests.

Upstairs, the first floor landing leads to three double bedrooms, all of good size and offering flexibility for family members and guests. The family bathroom serves the bedrooms and completes the accommodation on this floor. While the property would benefit from updating in parts, the rooms are well arranged and offer a solid base for improvement.

Outside

The rear garden is enclosed and laid mainly to lawn, with a patio area providing space for seating or outdoor dining. The garden is manageable in size and benefits from two storage sheds, offering useful space for tools, bicycles or garden equipment. The garden faces north and provides a private outdoor area that can be enjoyed throughout the year.

To the front of the property there is extensive off-road parking, front garden and access to the integrated garage.
