selling and letting properties

Wimborne Road
Tarrant Keyneston

Asking Price
£550,000

A charming detached Grade II listed cottage offering in excess of 1900 sq. ft. (183 sq. m) of internal versatile space with three/four double bedrooms, three/ four reception rooms that can be easily interchanged to suit your needs and situated in the small village of Tarrant Keyneston. The village itself boasts a public house that serves food, Grade II listed church and village hall that hosts many events and may be hired out. Not far away in Tarrant Rawston is a highly rated farm shop selling local produce. The main towns of Blandford and Wimborne - in opposite directions from the cottage - have a full range of amenities. The cottage is ideally placed to explore the nearby sites of Badbury Rings, Kingston Lacy, a significant National Trust property as well as the Nature Reserve and adjoining countryside.

The cottage dates to the 1600s and offers a unique blend of history and modern living. Boasting character features such as an inglenook fireplace, exposed beams, and cottage windows, the property exudes charm and warmth. Satisfying today's expectations there is some secondary glazing to the front windows and some uPVC double glazing to the rear as well as environmentally friendly and economical air sourced heat pump for the central heating. It is believed that historically the cottage formed two dwellings and was the smithy to the village. The current layout of the property lends itself to many requirements - there is ample space for multi-generational living and it has previously been used as a Bed and Breakfast to bring in an income.

Situated on approximately a third of an acre, the magical south/south west facing landscaped gardens provide a tranquil retreat, perfect for enjoying the outdoors and the vegetable patch is a step towards self sufficiency and with plenty of productive fruit bushes and trees, you will never be short of homemade jam!

Viewing is an absolute necessity.

The Property

Accommodation

Inside

Ground Floor

The cottage is approached from the lane to a storm porch with an original style door that opens into the sitting room. This room boasts a wealth of character features - there is a window with secondary glazing and seat beneath to the front and two windows with deep sills to the rear, exposed timber ceiling beams and uprights plus a fabulous inglenook fireplace with Bressummer beam. Stairs rise to the first floor and there are doors to the dining room and bedroom one as well as a paned glass door to the conservatory. This enjoys a wonderful outlook over the rear garden to the countryside beyond. The dining room boasts a double aspect with windows to the front and paned glass double doors opening out to the sun terrace to the rear. It also has a fireplace with wood burner and latch door that opens to the kitchen/breakfast room. This has a triple aspect with windows to the side, overlooking the rear garden and paned glass door to the utility. The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of modern country style kitchen units (solid wood carcasses) consisting of floor cupboards, some with drawers and open ended display shelves. There is a generous amount of beech work surfaces with tiled splash back and one and half bowl stainless steel sink and drainer with swan neck mixer tap. There is an integrated fridge with pull out shelves and dishwasher. The utility is also fitted with floor cupboards, drawers and work surfaces. A door from the kitchen that opens into the study, which has a double aspect and fitted with book shelves, internet connection and could be used as a fourth bedroom. Also from the kitchen/breakfast room there is a latch door to the lobby, which is turn opens to the ground floor bathroom and side of the cottage. There is also a double bedroom, fitted with wardrobes and enjoying a front and rear outlook and benefitting from an en-suite shower room, which has it's own hot water cylinder operated via immersion heater.

First Floor

The stairs rise to a galleried landing with window to the rear enjoying a rural outlook and fitted with a large storage cupboard with hanging rail and shelves. A latch door leads off to the inner landing and steps up and latch door to bedroom two. This enjoys a double outlook with windows to the front and rear. There are fitted wardrobes and door to the eaves, which provide excellent storage. From the inner landing there is a further double bedroom with window overlooking the rear garden to the adjoining fields and also benefits from fitted wardrobes plus a further spacious bathroom.

Outside

From the lobby there is a door leading out to a covered area where there is access to the boiler room and laundry room. The air sourced heat pump is located on the outer wall of the laundry room.

Parking and Garages

From Wimborne Road there is a 'service road' allowing access to the property and neighbouring properties. It also provides excellent parking. There are two timber garages (4.80 m x 2.74 m/15'9" x 9' and 5.23 m x 2.92 m/17'1" x 9'6") - both with light and power.

Gardens

The property sits in grounds extending to just over a third of an acre, enjoying a south/south westerly aspect and backs onto fields. The gardens have been beautifully landscaped over two terraces and are stocked with a variety of trees, shrubs and flowers as well as a pond. To the side there is a formal garden with shed and greenhouse and mature beds. There is also a vegetable patch, fruit bushes - raspberry, blackcurrant and redcurrant, logan berries as well as gooseberry and strawberry. In addition, there are fruit trees - greengage, pear and cherry, apple and plum trees - all of which are productive. From the top terrace there are steps leading down to the lower area, which leads into further areas of the garden to the back of the cottage. A truly magical garden that will please gardeners and non gardeners alike.
