Church Hill Stalbridge

£550,000

Set within the sought after Dorset town of Stalbridge, this visionary home forms part of a small and select development of just seven properties, newly built using original stone from the former agricultural buildings. The town itself offers a good range of everyday amenities including a supermarket, butchers, post office, primary school and public house, all within easy reach.

The accommodation is arranged over three levels and provides three double bedrooms plus a roof terrace with far reaching views over the Blackmore Vale countryside. Vaulted spaces and bespoke oak staircases guide you through an intriguing and well-considered layout, completed to the highest standard throughout with high quality fixtures and fittings, solid oak doors and flooring, Burlington bathroom and shower room suites with carpeting to the bedrooms. Incredibly thermally efficient, the property benefits from extensive insulation, heat pumps and solar generated electricity, and is covered by a ten year structural warranty.

Outside, the development is approached into a communal block paved courtyard where each property benefits from two dedicated parking spaces, owned collectively by the homeowners.

In brief, the inside accommodation is arranged over three floors - on entry there is a welcoming entrance hall, the principal bedroom with en-suite bathroom, a further double bedroom and separate shower room. On the first floor there is the open plan kitchen/dining room, another double bedroom and separate shower room plus access to the roof terrace. On the top floor there is a large living room. Outside there are two allocated parking spaces.

Location

Stalbridge

The property is located in the popular Dorset town of Stalbridge, which is reputed to be the county's smallest town, steeped in history and dating back to Saxon times with a 15th Century Church and Market Cross. The town has an approximate population of 2500 and caters well for everyday needs with an award winning supermarket, family run butchers, post office and community run library. There is also a primary school with excellent OFSTED report, dental surgery and public house as well as a variety of takeaway shops. Further facilities are available at Sturminster Newton 4 miles to the East and Sherborne and Shaftesbury both within 7 miles. The town is close to excellent communication links with the A30 and A303 within easy reach and just 3 miles from the mainline train station at Templecombe, serving London, Waterloo and the West Country. There are many nearby by restaurants and pubs that offer a choice of fine dining and traditional cuisine, plenty of country walks to explore the Blackmore Vale and its historic villages and to the east there is Cranborne Chase, a designated area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, which extends all the way from the Stour Valley to the New Forest. The glorious coastline and beaches of Lyme Regis to Lulworth Cove to Studland are an hour's drive away and form part of the famous Jurassic coast. There are many choices of independent and state schools, all within easy reach and include preparatory, junior and senior schools as well as sixth forms. Please ask us for further information.
