selling and letting properties

Vine Street
Templecombe

Guide Price
£200,000

A charming and characterful one bedroom end of terrace cottage, thought to date back to the 1700s and situated in the popular Somerset village of Templecombe. Steeped in history, the property retains a wealth of original features throughout, including quarry and flagstone tiles, Crittal windows and exposed beams. Templecombe is a well regarded village with its own mainline railway station, a Co-op store, primary school, recreational ground and a good range of local amenities all within easy walking distance.

The accommodation is arranged across two floors, with a sitting and dining room featuring a multi-fuel stove, a kitchen and bathroom on the ground floor, alongside a useful lobby. To the first floor, two rooms are found, the principal bedroom benefiting from a cast iron fireplace and exposed beams, and a further room, currently used as a nursery.

Outside, a fully enclosed rear garden enjoys a sunny aspect with a terraced seating area, steps rising to a lawn, a mature tree, an outbuilding ideal for storage and three sheds. Two unofficial parking spaces are also available on Vine Street.

The Property

Inside

Ground Floor

An entrance hall with flagstone flooring leads through to the sitting and dining room, a truly characterful space with Crittal windows to the front and flagstone flooring throughout. A multi-fuel stove set on a quarry tiled hearth with brick mantel creates a wonderful focal point, with a built-in wooden seat and understairs storage also found at this level. The kitchen is fitted with a wooden worktop and Belfast sink, with Crittal windows overlooking the garden and space for a washing machine, oven and refrigerator. A lobby with a part glazed door opening to the garden leads through to the bathroom.

First Floor

Stairs rise to the landing where the principal bedroom is a generous and characterful room, enjoying a wooden framed window overlooking the garden, an exposed beam, elm wood flooring and a cast iron fireplace. A second room, currently used as a nursery completes the first floor accommodation.

Outside

Garden

A fully enclosed rear garden enjoying a sunny aspect, with a traditional stone wall to the left and rear boundary. Steps rise from a terraced seating area up to a sunny lawn, with a stone path leading through the garden to a mature tree and three sheds. An outbuilding provides useful additional storage space, with side access available via a gate across the neighbouring property.

Parking

Two unofficial parking spaces are available to the left of the property on the right hand side of Vine Street.
